Statement of Intent

At Broadbottom CE (VC) Primary School we understand that everyone in the school community deserves to learn and teach in a supportive and caring environment, without fear of bullying or harassment. Communication technology plays an increasingly large and important role in the school curriculum. As a result, it is important to acknowledge that, sometimes, new technologies can be used for unpleasant or illegal purposes. We recognise the existence of cyberbullying and the severity of the issue. The school is committed to:

- Educating pupils, staff and parents about cyberbullying and its consequences.
- Providing a productive and healthy learning environment.
- Ensuring there is a robust policy to prevent and, if necessary, deal with any cyberbullying in school or within the school community.
- Develop and improve the policies and procedures around cyberbullying through regular evaluation and review.
- Providing a strong anti-bullying policy and act upon it if bullying arises.

1. Legal framework

1.1. This policy has due regard to all relevant legislation and statutory guidance including, but not limited to, the following:

- The Equality Act 2010
- The Safeguarding Vulnerable Groups Act 2006
- The Education and Inspections Act 2006
- The Computer Misuse Act 1990, amended by the Police and Justice Act 2006
- The Regulation of Investigatory Powers Act 2000
- The Education Act 2002
- The Criminal Justice and Courts Act 2015
- DfE (2017) 'Preventing and tackling bullying'
- DfE (2019) 'Keeping children safe in education'
- DfE (2018) 'Searching, screening and confiscation'

1.2. This policy operates in conjunction with the following school policies:

- Technology Acceptable Use Agreement
- E-safety Policy
- Anti-bullying Policy (under review)
- Child Protection and Safeguarding Policy

2.Roles and responsibilities

2.1. The governing board is responsible for:

- The overall implementation and monitoring of this policy.
- Appointing a safeguarding link governor who will work with the DSL to ensure the policies and practices relating to safeguarding, including the prevention of cyberbullying, are being implemented effectively.

2.2. The headteacher is responsible for:

- The practices and procedures outlined in this policy and ensuring that their effectiveness monitored.
- Ensuring that the school maintains details of agencies and resources that may assist in preventing and addressing cyberbullying.
- Reviewing the procedures outlined in the school's Online Safety Policy to ensure that pupils protect themselves from cyberbullying online.
- Ensuring all incidents of cyberbullying are reported and dealt with in accordance with the school's Anti-bullying Policy.

2.3. The DSL is responsible for:

- Ensuring all policies that relate to safeguarding, including cyberbullying, are reviewed, and updated regularly.
- Ensuring all staff are aware that they must report any issues concerning cyberbullying and know how to do so.
- Providing training to all staff so that they feel confident identifying pupils at risk of being cyberbullied and know how to make referrals when a pupil is at risk.
- Ensuring that parents are provided access to this policy so that they are fully aware of the school's responsibility to safeguard pupils and their welfare.
- Ensuring all pupils are taught about cyberbullying and how they should report a concern.
- Ensuring all staff are aware of their responsibilities by providing clear guidance for staff on the use of technology, both inside and outside of school.

2.4. All members of staff are responsible for identifying signs of cyberbullying and staying informed about the technologies that pupils commonly use.

2.5. Teachers are responsible for ensuring that issues surrounding cyberbullying are explored in the curriculum and pupils are aware of how to respect others.

2.6. Pupils, staff, and parents are responsible for complying with the school's Acceptable Use Agreement. Pupils will be asked to sign the agreement before they are allowed to use computer equipment and the internet in school. Parents will be asked to confirm that they have discussed its contents with their children.

3. What is cyberbullying?

3.1. Bullying" is an act which is based on unequal power relations, real or perceived. It will usually be repeated and be difficult to defend against and is intended to hurt the recipient emotionally and/or physically. It can manifest verbally, in writing or images, and can be done physically, financially (including damage to property) or through social isolation. Verbal bullying is the most common form, especially within schools.

- 3.2. "Cyberbullying" includes sending or posting harmful or upsetting text, images, or other messages using the internet, mobile phones or other ICT for the purpose of bullying.
- 3.3. Cyberbullying can take many forms and can go even further than face-to-face bullying by invading personal space and home life, and can target more than one person. It can also take place across age groups and target pupils, staff and others, and may take place inside school, within the wider community, at home or when travelling. It can sometimes draw bystanders into being accessories

3.4. Cyberbullying can include the following:

- Threatening, intimidating or upsetting text messages or emails
- Threatening or embarrassing pictures or video clips sent via mobile phone cameras
- Disclosure of private photographs or videos with the intent to cause distress
- Silent or abusive phone calls or using the victim's phone to harass others, to make them think the victim is responsible
- Menacing or upsetting responses to someone in a chatroom
- Unpleasant messages sent via instant messaging including gaming
- Unpleasant or defamatory information posted to blogs, personal websites and social networking sites, e.g. Facebook

NB. The above list is not exhaustive, and cyberbullying may take other forms

3.5. All cases of cyberbullying are as serious as any other form of bullying.

3.6. Cyberbullying issues are dealt with in an appropriate manner dependent on the severity and frequency of the issue, in accordance with the school's Antibullying Policy

4. Legal issues

4.1. Cyberbullying is generally criminal in character.

4.2. It is unlawful to disseminate defamatory information in any media, including via websites.

4.3. Section 127 of the Communications Act 2003 makes it an offence to send, by public means of a public electronic communications network, a message or other matter that is grossly offensive, or one of an indecent, obscene or menacing character.

4.4. In addition, the Protection from Harassment Act 1997 makes it an offence to knowingly pursue any course of conduct amounting to harassment.

4.5. At the school, cyberbullying is considered as serious as any other form of bullying. Cyberbullying issues are dealt with in an appropriate manner dependent on the severity and frequency of the issue and the age of the pupil.

5. Preventing cyberbullying

- 5.1. The school recognises that both staff and pupils may experience cyberbullying and will commit to preventing any instances that may occur by creating a learning and teaching environment which is free from harassment and bullying
- 5.2. Staff, pupils and parents will be regularly educated about cyberbullying and the importance of staying safe online, in accordance with the school's Online Safety Policy.
- 5.3. Teachers will discuss cyberbullying as part of the curriculum, and diversity, difference and respect for others will be promoted and celebrated through various lessons.
- 5.4. Pupils will be educated about the importance of reporting instances of cyberbullying and will be fully informed of who they should report any concerns to.
- 5.5. The school will provide opportunities to extend friendship groups, and interactive skills will be provided through participation in special events, e.g. drama productions, sporting activities, etc.
- 5.6. Staff will be regularly educated about the signs of cyberbullying in order to promote early identification and intervention
- 5.7. It is made clear in staff meetings and the staff handbook that members of staff should not have contact with current pupils on social networking sites (specifically, not befriending pupils on Facebook). In addition, staff are discouraged from having past pupils as friends.
- 5.8. The delivery of PHSE is important and will include discussing keeping personal information safe and the appropriate use of the internet. In addition, pupils will be educated about e-safety through projects in other subjects, such as computing.
- 5.9. Outside the curriculum, pupils will receive sessions about e-safety and cyberbullying through assemblies and events such as Anti-Bullying Week.
- 5.10. Parents will be expected to play a key role in protecting their children from cyberbullying and online abuse by monitoring their child's online access and removing sites, apps etc that are inappropriate or have an age restriction that is above their child's age.
- 5.11. Parents will be expected to follow advice given to them by school to support the prevention of cyberbullying.

6. Signs of cyberbullying

6.1. Staff and parents should be alert to the following signs that may indicate a pupil is being cyberbullied:

- Becoming withdrawn or shy
- Showing signs of depression
- Becoming extremely moody or agitated
- Becoming anxious or overly stressed
- Displaying signs of aggressive behaviour
- Avoiding use of the computer
- Changing eating and/or sleeping habits
- Avoiding participating in activities they once enjoyed
- Engaging in self-harm
- Changing their group of friends suddenly

6.2. Staff and parents should also be alert to the following signs which may indicate that a pupil is cyberbullying others:

- Avoiding using the computer or mobile device turning off the screen when someone is near
- Appearing nervous when using the computer, mobile device, games console or mobile phone
- Acting in a secretive manner when using the computer, mobile device, games console or mobile phone
- Spending excessive amounts of time on the computer, mobile device, games console or mobile phone
- Becoming upset or angry when the computer, mobile device, games console or mobile phone is taken away

6.3. Parents will be advised to report to the headteacher if their child displays any of the signs outlined in 6.2 of this policy.

7. Procedures for dealing with cyberbullying

7.1. All issues of cyberbullying should be reported according to the procedures outlined in the Anti-bullying Policy

- 7.2. If staff are concerned that a pupil might be at risk of cyberbullying, they will report this to the DSL or Deputy DSL as soon as possible.
- 7.3. All pupils will be informed that they can disclose cyberbullying concerns about themselves or others to any member of staff. Staff will not promise confidentiality and will inform the DSL or Deputy DSL of the disclosure as soon as possible.
- 7.4. Responses to cyberbullying incidents, including the necessary sanctions, will be dealt with in accordance with the school's Anti-bullying Policy.
- 7.5. A cyberbullying incident might include features different to other forms of bullying, prompting a particular response. Significant differences may include the following:
- Impact: possible extensive scale and scope
 - Location: the anytime and anywhere nature of cyberbullying
 - Anonymity: the person being bullied might not know who is targeting them
 - Motivation: the person doing the cyberbullying might not realise that their actions are bullying
 - Evidence: the subject of the bullying may have evidence of what has happened
- 7.6. Staff are required to report any concerns to the headteacher, who will investigate the matter and will initiate an appropriate response.
- 7.7. All incidents of cyberbullying, including any concerns, will be recorded on our online system CPOMS
- 7.8. The headteacher will arrange a discussion with the pupil who is being bullied in order to gain knowledge about the situation and will use this to inform a discussion with the pupil who has been accused of cyberbullying.
- 7.9. The headteacher will discuss the incident with any witnesses and will gain evidence of the cyberbullying incident: this may involve text messages, emails, photos, etc., provided by the pupil being bullied.
- 7.10. The school understands that pupils at primary level, and particularly younger children, may not be aware of their actions and, as such, may not mean to intentionally cyberbully another pupil.
- 7.11. The headteacher will consider the nature of the cyberbullying incident and the way in which it has been conducted, including if it is evident that it was intentional or if the pupil's age and knowledge of cyberbullying is a contributing factor to the incident, when deciding on the appropriate sanction.
- 7.12. If necessary, the headteacher may decide to involve the police in an appropriate response to the cyberbullying incident.

8. Support for the pupils who are the victims of cyberbullying

8.1. The headteacher will discuss the support available with the victim and, therefore, their feelings and requests are paramount to the support provided.

8.2. The support available includes:

- Emotional support and reassurance from a designated member of staff.
- Reassurance that it was right to report the incident and that appropriate action will be taken.
- Liaison with the pupil's parents to ensure a continuous dialogue of support.
- Advice not to retaliate or reply, but to keep the evidence and show or give it to their parent or a member of staff.
- Advice on other aspects of e-safety procedures to prevent reoccurrence.
- Discussion with the pupil's parents to evaluate their online habits.
- Age-appropriate advice on how the perpetrator might be blocked online.
- Actions, where possible and appropriate, to have offending material removed.
- Discussion with the pupil's parents on whether police action is required (except in serious cases of child exploitation where the police may be contacted without discussion with parents).

8.3. The school will also use additional support, such as involvement with external agencies, where necessary, as outlined in the Anti-bullying Policy.

9. Investigation

9.1. The nature of any investigation will depend on the circumstances. It may include the following:

- Preserving evidence, for example, by saving or printing (e.g. phone messages, texts, emails and website pages)
- Identifying and questioning witnesses
- Requesting that a pupil reveals a message or other phone content or confiscating a phone
- Legal action, e.g. where private sexual videos or images of an individual under 16-years-old are disclosed with the intent to cause distress

9.2 In accordance with the Education Act 2011, the school has the right to examine and delete files from pupils' personal devices, e.g. mobiles phones, where there is good reason to do so. This power applies to all schools and there is no need to have parental consent to search through a young person's mobile phone.

9.3 If an electronic device is seized by a member of staff, and there is reasonable ground to suspect that it contains evidence in relation to an offence, the device must be given to the police as soon as it is reasonably practicable.

9.4 If a staff member finds material that they do not suspect contains evidence in relation to an offence, the headteacher will decide whether it is appropriate to delete or retain the material as evidence of a breach of the relevant policies

10. Working with the child accused of cyberbullying

10.1. How the school will work with the child accused of cyberbullying and any sanctions given will: be determined on an individual basis in accordance with the Anti-Bullying Policy with the intention of:

- Helping the victim to feel safe again and be assured that the bullying will stop.
- Holding the child who has bullied to account, so they recognise the harm caused and do not repeat the behaviour.
- Helping bullies to recognise the consequences of their actions and facilitating change in their attitude and behaviour.
- Demonstrating that cyberbullying, as with any other form of bullying, is unacceptable, and that the school has effective ways of dealing with it.

11. Monitoring and review

11.1. This policy will be reviewed on an annual basis by the computing lead and the headteacher, who will make any changes necessary, taking into account previous cyberbullying incidents and the effectiveness of procedures, and will communicate changes to all members of staff.

11.2. All members of staff are required to familiarise themselves with this policy as part of the induction programme.
